

RULE 40.1
NOTICE TO COURT OF CALENDAR AND JURY TRIAL CHANGES

Whenever a case has been set for trial and thereafter is settled or will not be tried for any reason, or if a jury is thereafter waived, notice shall be immediately given to the Court Administrator. Upon violation of this rule, the court may assess actual costs. Actual costs shall include venireperson mileage and per diem, bailiff wages, and witness fees paid by the court.

[Adopted effective June 30, 1993.]
